

Please explain why our Gov. is once again telling us what is good for us?? Is it because the phone company isn't making enough with their feature? Our home has never been so quiet. No pain in the rear solicitors. What about my privacy? If I want their service believe me I know how to use the phone book. I DONOT buy from those who disrupt my privacy. What is the sense of our state having laws if the Government keeps overturning them.